Kitchen Packing Checklist

Use this checklist to stay organized and make sure nothing is forgotten when packing your kitchen for a move.

1 Specialty & Seasonal Items (Pack First)

- [ ] Holiday dinnerware
- [ ] Serving platters and trays
- [ ] Cake stands
- [ ] Specialty baking tools
- [ ] Seasonal decorations

2 Bakeware (Pack Early)

- [ ] Baking trays
- [ ] Cake pans
- [ ] Muffin tins
- [ ] Mixing bowls
- [ ] Measuring cups and tools

3 Small Kitchen Appliances (Pack Early)

- [ ] Blender
- [ ] Mixer
- [ ] Toaster
- [ ] Air fryer
- [ ] Food processor
- [ ] Coffee grinder
- [ ] Accessories and cords

4 Cookware (Pack Next)

- [ ] Pots and pans
- [ ] Lids
- [ ] Skillets
- [ ] Strainers
- [ ] Cooking accessories

5 Dinnerware (Pack Next)

- [ ] Plates
- [ ] Bowls
- [ ] Serving dishes
- [ ] Mugs
- [ ] Saucers

6 Glassware & Fragile Items (Pack Carefully)

- [ ] Drinking glasses
- [ ] Wine glasses
- [ ] Glass jars
- [ ] Pitchers
- [ ] Ceramic items

7 Pantry Items (Pack Closer to Moving Day)

- [ ] Canned food
- [ ] Dry groceries (rice, pasta, cereal, etc.)
- [ ] Spices
- [ ] Cooking oils and sauces
- [ ] Snacks

8 Cutlery & Utensils (Pack Last)

- [ ] Knives (use blade covers)
- [ ] Forks, spoons and other cutlery
- [ ] Spatulas
- [ ] Ladles and tongs
- [ ] Peelers
- [ ] Other cooking utensils

9 Everyday Kitchen Essentials (Pack Last)

- [ ] Daily-use plates and cups
- [ ] Basic cooking tools
- [ ] Coffee or tea supplies
- [ ] Dish soap and cleaning supplies
- [ ] Paper towels
- [ ] Towels and dishcloths
- [ ] Create an "Open First: Kitchen" box

Loading Tips for Your Portable Storage Container

- [ ] Place heavy boxes at the bottom
- [ ] Keep fragile boxes upright and protected
- [ ] Distribute weight evenly
- [ ] Use padding or moving blankets to fill gaps
- [ ] Do not stack heavy items on fragile boxes
- [ ] Keep frequently needed items accessible
- [ ] Secure items to prevent movement
- [ ] Follow storage provider guidelines for restricted items

Additional Notes